

Design and access statement

The proposals have minimal impact on the character and overall design of Roper House, however the addition of a downstairs shower, wider access to the kitchen and wider access from the utility room will be a great advantage for family members with poor mobility.