

BARNSLEY
Metropolitan Borough Council

TPO REFUSAL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (TREE PRESERVATION ORDER) REGULATIONS
1999

APPLICATION NO. 2012/0900

To Mrs Suzanne Savage
27 George Street
Worsbrough Dale
Barnsley
S70 4SP

In pursuance of its powers under the above-mentioned Act and Regulations the Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council as the Local Planning Authority hereby refuses consent for the proposals the subject of the plan(s) and application registered by the Council on the 09 August 2012 and therein described as:- Removal of Horse Chestnut tree within TPO 9/1978 (Resubmission)

The reasons for the Council's decision to refuse consent for the proposal are:-

- 1 In the opinion of the Local Planning Authority, the proposed felling of the Horse Chestnut tree, which is subject to Tree Preservation Order No. 9/1978, would be significantly harmful to the visual amenity of the area and the damage attributed to it is not considered sufficient justification for its removal.

Assistant Director, Planning and Regulatory Services

Dated 27 September 2012

NOTES:-

If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council to refuse permission for the proposed development then you can appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and Regions under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act. If you want to appeal then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice, using a form which you can get from The Planning Inspectorate, Room 3/24 Hawk Wing, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions it imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order and to any directions giving under the order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based its decision on a direction given by him.
