Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

I am writing regarding your enquiry to Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council in relation to significant works, as detailed above at your client's address at 106 Kingsway, Mapplewell. As I am confident you will know already, your proposal would require formal planning consent, and you are seeking guidance on what may be acceptable, before submitting a planning application. Key points of concern or note are listed below:

Scale: the proposed introduction of a first floor, or floor within the heightened roof space of the original dwelling is likely to be considered acceptable, especially if the design is reflective of the exiting bungalows with roof space, located further down on Kingsway.

Side Extension: the principle of a side extension would be acceptable, but the current proposal, after also obtaining a second opinion, is unlikely to be deemed acceptable. There appears to be no subordination of the extension to the host dwelling, limited reflective character of the original dwelling, and finally the overall mass of the proposal does not sit right with the dwelling or the street scene. A lower roof height, and potential loss of the dormer may help reduce its impact.

Materials: the retention and extension of the stone cladding is welcome as this highlights an element of the original character of the dwelling. Unfortunately, with very limited amounts of render within the immediate street scene, anything beyond a limited amount of render, such as accents, would be very likely to be refused. Instead, matching brickwork to the original dwelling would be required as the dominant material. Ideally the roof tiles should match the existing roof, but if the original roof is being replaced, a complementary style of tiles to the street scene would be acceptable.

Kind Regards,
Robert

We have since spoken to Robert and provided some revised plans which address his comments. The drawings have been refined and form the basis of this application.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

E.g. All the land is owned by a single individual

- ☒ Yes
- ☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

 "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

* "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
