Electricity Act 1989: Overhead Lines (Exemption)(England and Wales) Regulations 2009

It is proposed to undertake the following work that is considered to be exempted from the Electricity Act 1989 by falling within the Overhead Lines (Exemption)(England and Wales) Regulations 2009:

NAVY LANE, ROYSTON, BARNSELY. S71 4EF.

Particulars of proposed development to be completed by Applicant:

As part of our ongoing programme of maintaining the electricity network in our area we are proposing to reconductor part of the Low voltage overhead line network along Navy lane, Royston, Barnsley. S71 4EF. The work will involve replacing the existing low voltage electrical conductors infavour of an aerial bunched conductor. The existing 3 wire electrical conductor will be bunched into an insulated single wire arrangement along 4 spans between points A - B along public highway and also the overhead service line to a residential property called Beechbank on Navy Lane (points C - D) as shown on the attached plan, detailing our proposals.

The Council/Authority is requested to indicate that it has no objection to the work being carried out by returning two copies of this Form with the Certificate completed and signed.

Yours Faithfully
