

7 December 2023

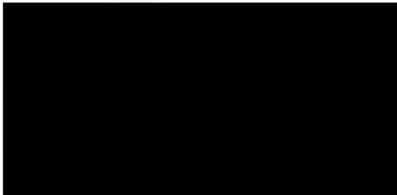

To whom it may concern

Re: Relocation to proposed site for Barnsley free school

Having met with the developer recently we agree that the new proposed site is an improvement on the previous proposal and subject to work on levels would make a suitable site for a primary school, with improved access and space over the original proposal.

We fully support the move.

Yours sincerely

Paul Tarn
Chief Executive Officer