If Yes, please complete the following information about the advice you were given (this will help the authority to deal with this application more efficiently):

Officer name:

Title: Miss First name: Alex Surname: Cotton

Reference: 10003

Date (DD/MM/YYYY): 03/12/2010 (Must be pre-application submission)

Details of the pre-application advice received:

There has actually been a wide range of consultation held on this project from it's beginnings early 2010 and throughout the HCA consultation until the final design consultation recently.
The comments confirmed that the designs meet the minimum requirements in terms of spacing, proximity and overlooking.
It was confirmed that the development application for the 15 units could not be dealt with as one application and hence the development is split into three applications (Sites A, B and C).
The planning officer commented upon the long drive - this is retained so as to keep the building line consistent with context and to avoid redesigning the public highway.
