- Yes
 No

If Yes, what is the overall ground area?

150	square metres
-----	---------------

What is the distance from the proposed new building?

20	metres
----	--------

Would the proposed building be used to house livestock, slurry or sewage sludge?

- Yes
 No

Would the ground area covered by the proposed building exceed:

- 1,000 square metres (if relying on the temporary provision to use the permitted development rights as they stood prior to 21 May 2024)
- 1,250 square metres (where the agricultural unit is under 5 hectares)
- 1,500 square metres (where the agricultural unit is 5 hectares or more)

- Yes
 No

NOTE: If the ground area covered exceeds the square metre limit it will not qualify as Permitted Development and an application for Planning Permission will be required.

1 or more

Hectares

How long has the land on which the proposed development would be located been in use for agriculture for the purposes of a trade or business?

Years

300

Months

0

Is the proposed development reasonably necessary for the purposes of agriculture?

- Yes
 No

If yes, please explain why

The development is intended to support core agricultural operations (e.g., machinery storage, feed/fodder storage, welfare facilities for workers). It's use is integral to the efficient and lawful management of the agricultural unit.

The size and form of the development are proportionate to the existing and anticipated agricultural activities. It does not exceed what is required to support normal farming operations and has been designed specifically for agricultural use and in keeping with the other buildings on the farm.

Without the proposed building, the holding would face inefficiencies or operational constraints.

The development is located within an established agricultural unit and is consistent with the ongoing agricultural use of the land, helping to maintain and improve productivity and operational safety.

Is the proposed development designed for the purposes of agriculture?

- Yes
 No

If yes, please explain why

It has been designed by a local agricultural building company with the design consistent with agricultural needs and will provide modern and secure space.

Does the proposed development involve any alteration to a dwelling?

- Yes
 No
