I have received an application in respect of the above proposal and will be pleased to receive any observations that you may care to make in writing, within 21 days of the date of this letter. Please quote "Our Ref" on any communication. Please note by virtue of the provisions of the Local Government Act 1972, anyone may be entitled to read and obtain a copy of any representations you make and the Council is now making such responses available (subject to a delay) to view over the internet.

East Riding of Yorkshire Council is committed to fulfilling its role as an employer, service provider, purchaser of goods or services and community leader without discrimination in terms of colour, culture or ethnic origin, nationality, religious belief, gender, disability, age, sexuality, geographical location or any other status. When responding to the Council about this application you are asked to respect this commitment. Any correspondence that includes anything that, in the Council's opinion, is considered to be discriminatory, libellous or offensive will be excluded from the application file and will not be taken into account in the Council's decision nor will it be published on the Council's website.

If you wish to view the application electronically or to check its progress then you can logon to <http://www.eastriding.gov.uk/myarea/disclaimer.asp> and enter the application number as 16/02403/VAR. You can make comments electronically using the feedback option on the above website or by e-mailing beverley.dc@eastriding.gov.uk. Guidance notes on making comments and the right to speak are also available on the above website or on request.

Additionally, you can visit any of the Council's libraries where facilities are available for you to view planning applications online. The details of reference number, address and postcode set out above will be required for you to find the application. To use the internet at a library you will be asked to register. This is a free service, however, if you wish to print any documents, there will be a charge.

If there are any questions that cannot be resolved by viewing the plans online, please contact the Case Officer named at the top of this letter.

Yours faithfully
