Report Conclusions:

Within the scope of this assessment, the Site is not considered to be susceptible to mining-related ground instability. No further information is required within the scope of a typical mortgage application. Below exist relevant interpreted conclusions based on the findings of this report (where applicable):

Given the depth of coal mine workings beneath the Site, any movement in the ground should have stopped.

Although no records exist of historical subsidence claims, it is possible that claims may be made in the vicinity of the Site in the future.

Next Steps:

No further actions required.

If you are planning on altering or developing the Site

Within the scope of this assessment, the Site is not considered to be susceptible to ground movement, should the Site be developed. Entirely unrecorded mineral workings may exist and therefore in the event any adverse features are discovered during site works, please contact Terraforma directly to discuss the appropriate further steps.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Key and Colour Information

The below key provides further guidance on the colours used throughout this report.

Lender Attention	This colour is applied when Terraforma has identified mining hazards within the vicinity of the Site, including features (e.g., mine shafts/ adits) that could affect the future value of the Site. A lender may want to be alerted to this adverse entry, due to requirements of UK Finance (formerly the Council of Mortgage Lenders), before deciding on whether to proceed with the transaction. The conveyancer is advised to follow the terms of the UK Finance Mortgage Lenders' Handbook and any additional instructions from the prospective lender in its consideration and determination of whether to refer any part of this report to the lender.
Conveyancer Further Action	This colour is applied when Terraforma has identified mining hazards that could affect the future ground stability of the Site. Terraforma does not believe that the transaction should continue until further actions have been undertaken to quantify the risk of subsidence or collapse to the Site. Terraforma recommends that the conveyancer liaises with all necessary parties regarding the report's findings.
Purchaser Advisory	This colour is applied when the purchaser's attention should be drawn to the prudent recommendations outlined in the report. The report results should not hinder the transaction, and Terraforma's Terms & Conditions are valid for the Site. However, Terraforma recommend that the purchaser(s) read this report carefully.
Passed No Further Action	This colour is applied when Terraforma has not identified any mining hazards that influence the Site. Terraforma does not believe that any further actions are required for this transaction and Terraforma's Terms & Conditions are valid for the Site.

Additional Remarks

These enquiries are The Law Society CON29M (2018) Coal Mining search enquiries and are used with permission of the Law Society. Terraforma's Terms and Conditions are applicable at the time the report was produced.

Future Development

In scenarios where mining activity has been identified, a prudent developer would seek appropriate technical advice before any works are undertaken.

In these areas, if development proposals are being considered, technical advice relating to both the investigation of coal and former coal mines and their treatment should be obtained before beginning work on site. All proposals should apply good engineering practice developed for mining areas. No development should be undertaken that intersects, disturbs or interferes with any coal or mines of coal without the permission of the Coal Authority.

Developers should be aware that the investigation of coal seams/former mines of coal may have the potential to generate and/or displace underground gases and these risks both under and adjacent to the development should be fully considered in developing any proposals. The need for effective measures to prevent gases entering into public properties either during investigation or after development also needs to be assessed and properly addressed. This is necessary due to the public safety implications of any development in these circumstances.

Notice of Statutory Cover

In the unlikely event of any future damage, the terms of the Coal Mining Subsidence Act 1991 (as amended by the Coal Industry Act 1994) may apply*, and the Coal Authority / Licensee has a duty to take remedial action in respect of subsidence caused by the withdrawal of support from land and/or property in connection with lawful coal-mining operations. Typically, these actions will not need to involve either your insurance company or mortgage lender and therefore the end user(s) should not incur any costs or liability. *Note: this Act does not apply where coal was worked or gotten by virtue of the grant of a gale in the Forest of Dean, or any other part of the Hundred of St. Briavels in the county of Gloucester.

In addition to the above, it should also be noted that the Coal Authority offer a Public Safety and Subsidence Department that provides a 24-hour 7 day a week call out service (Tel: 01623 646 333) to take remedial action in respect of hazards associated with the movement or collapse of any coal mineshaft or entrances to coal mines and from other coal mining related surface hazards. Further information can be found on their website: <https://www.groundstability.com/>.

Introduction

The Environment Act 1995 has made site sensitivity a key issue, as the legislation pays as much attention to the pathways by which contamination could spread, and to the vulnerable targets of contamination, as it does the potential sources of contamination. For this reason, Landmark's Site Sensitivity maps and Datasheet(s) place great emphasis on statutory data provided by the Environment Agency/Natural Resources Wales and the Scottish Environment Protection Agency; it also incorporates data from Natural England (and the Scottish and Welsh equivalents) and Local Authorities; and highlights hydrogeological features required by environmental and geotechnical consultants. It does not include any information concerning past uses of land. The datasheet is produced by querying the Landmark database to a distance defined by the client from a site boundary provided by the client. In this datasheet the National Grid References (NGRs) are rounded to the nearest 10m in accordance with Landmark's agreements with a number of Data Suppliers.
