

Landscaping details

The proposed works will not affect any trees or other landscaping in the area. The proposed position of the works is currently hardstanding and access to the area is via an existing car park.

Works will be carried out while the building is open so we can utilise adjacent car parking spaces for vans, skips and machinery during the works.