4. Type of Proposed Advertisement(s)

Please describe the proposed advertisement(s)

Relocation of an external illuminated sign from the road side of the building on West Street Hoyland to the far side of the building within the centre car park further away from residential properties and roadside. Sign has been moved further into the site and fixed to the current structure of the building. The site is a leisure centre containing swimming pool, fitness suite, sports hall and studios. The site has been open since 1974. Planning permission was granted for the original illuminated sign in 2004. To ensure that the site could be viewed from roadside as the leisure centre is setback from the road. The new sign has been moved from the roadside further into the footprint of the building on the sports hall side and is the same size. The sign is on a timer with the rest of the building floodlights and goes off with the centre lights on an evening.
