

Application states that rainwater drainage from the site will not exceed the current amount. I find this incredible as there is only a trickle at the lowest point at Claycliffe opposite Aldi car park. The rainwater from roofs roads drives will amount to a huge volume and any onsite storage will be rapidly overwhelmed with such small release. I can only see substantial flow adding to flooding problems in the area and River Dearne generally.