1. Whilst every effort has been made to accurately reproduce vehicle characteristics in all instances, please be aware that the AutoTrack software is not able to replicate independently controlled rear-wheel steering, and as such, results are likely to represent a worst-case. It is therefore recommended that results are checked in detail on site.
2. Please note that the manufacturer of AutoTrack gives no warranty as to the results or performance of this Software.
3. Mapping has been taken from OS information only
