Dear Messrs A, J & M R Dickinson

YORKSHIRE WATER SERVICES LTD (YWS) – FAR ROYD MOOR FARM LANDLORD CONSENT FOR PROPOSED NEW TENANT SLURRY STORE ON THE LAND KNOWN AS LAND ADJACENT TO WHITLEY ROAD

I refer to your request to erect a new slurry store on the land known as the land adjacent to Whitely Road and our subsequent discussions. This proposed slurry store is to be constructed at your own expense and in the location (not to scale and for identification purposes only) as shown on the attached plan.

On behalf of Yorkshire Water Services Ltd I can now formally grant consent to construct a new slurry store on the land opposite the entrance of Far Royd Moor Farm. The spoil from the construction of the store must be disposed of in an appropriate manner. The new store should comply with all relevant legislations and regulations and should be maintain to a high standard at your own expense.

The consent of YWS is subject to the condition that the value of the new concrete panelled slurry store will be written off over a period of 10 years from the date of construction. Prior to construction of the new building I would be grateful if you could sign, date and return a copy of this letter to record your agreement to this condition.

Please note that approval for the above new slurry store is subject to you obtaining any necessary approvals and consents.

Yours sincerely,
