REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

APPLICATION NO. 2012/0581

Proposal Erection of an agricultural workers dwelling
At Hilltop Farm, Hemingfield Road, Hemingfield, Barnsley, S73 0PZ

Permission is refused for the proposals which were the subject of the Application and Plans registered by the Council on 21 May 2012 and described above.

The reason(s) for the Council's decision to refuse planning permission is/are:

Pursuant to article 31(1)(cc) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) Order 2010 (as amended), the Local Planning Authority have, where possible, made a pre-application advice service available, complied with our Planning Service Charter for Business and otherwise actively engaged with the applicant in dealing with the application.

- 1 The site lies within the Green Belt, the boundaries of which are saved by Policy GS6 of the Barnsley Unitary Development Plan, wherein there is a presumption against inappropriate development, unless it is for one of the purposes set out in paragraph 89 of National Planning Policy Framework. This is reflected in Policy CSP 34 of the Barnsley Local Development Framework Core Strategy.

In the opinion of the Local Planning Authority, the agricultural justification submitted in support of the proposed agricultural workers dwelling fails to satisfy the need test described in Saved Policy GS8B of the Barnsley Unitary Development Plan in that the existing agricultural business does not create a clear and unambiguous need for an agricultural worker to be on site all the time. Furthermore it is considered that there is available existing accommodation available within the local vicinity of the site which can provide the accommodation needs without the building of a new dwelling in the Green Belt.

The proposal therefore constitutes inappropriate development contrary to Barnsley UDP Saved Policy GS8B, Barnsley LDF Core Strategy Policy CSP 34 and the National Planning Policy Framework Chapter 9.

NOTES:-

Appeals to the Secretary of State

If you are aggrieved by the decision of the Council to refuse permission for the proposed development then you can appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and Regions under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act. If you want to appeal, then you must do so within six months of the date of this notice, using a form which you can get from The Planning Inspectorate, Room 3/24 Hawk Wing, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions it imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order and to any directions giving under the order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authority based its decision on a direction given by him.

Purchase Notices

If either the Local Planning Authority or the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and Regions refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor can he render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

Compensation

In certain circumstances compensation may be claimed from the Local Planning Authority if permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on reference to the application to him. These circumstances are set out in Sections 114 and related provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
