

Design Statement

Job Name : 50 The Green, Royston, Barnsley, S71 4LN

Date:30th November 2021

Application: Erection of Granny Annex to dwelling

The Property

50 The Green is located very close to the central of Royston with the back of the property laying on the Royston graveyard,

There are no external alterations planned as part of the works. And no work will take place to the existing main dwelling.

Proposed Operation

As the client has now submitted the application the existing structure was demolished and notified to the planning department. The New Granny annex to the dwelling is intended to be occupied by the applicant / owner, and family members will occupy the main building. This has already been informed to the department.