

Has it been established where the bat population that has frequented the properties on farmhouse lane for decades originates, and can you confirm that the habitat will not be destroyed.