BURTON ROAD
BEN BAILEY HOMES

A	White poplars	group of two young roadside trees Useful roadside trees Easily replaced
B	Small trees	group of small mature hawthorns & young poplars on roadside bank Useful roadside trees Easily replaced
C	Goat willow	damaged young tree Easily replaced
D	Poplars	short row of young poplars 8 – 14 m height Limited potential & incompatible with residential use
E	Scrub	scrub & mature trees within site Unlikely to survive demolition/ site clearance; area of small scrubby trees outside site
F	Poplars	row of closely spaced poplars many only 1 m apart & up to c. 14 m in height Limited potential & incompatible with residential use
G	Thorn hedge	overgrown hedge Easily replaced
H	Cherry	small mature tree Easily replaced
I	Purple leaf plum	small mature tree Easily replaced
J	Birch	small mature tree Easily replaced
K	Cypress hedge	with small hawthorn at road end Unlikely to survive demolition/ site clearance
L	Cherry	small mature tree; poor condition Easily replaced
M	Cypress group	small trees Unlikely to survive demolition/ site clearance Easily replaced
N	Hawthorn	small mature tree Easily replaced

O	Scrub	scattered areas of old thorn hedge, self-sown thorn & willow, etc. All easily replaced
P	Poplars	group of closely spaced maturing trees Limited potential & incompatible with residential use
Q	Field maple	small mature tree; forked at base
R	Willows	mature trees in poor condition Unlikely to survive site clearance Increasing risk of significant breakage
S	Copse	poplar & willow copse between stream & scrapyard fence Useful woodland screening Thin/ remove weaker trees
T	Willows/poplars	group including young sycamores Unlikely to survive demolition/ site clearance
U	Poplars	group of maturing trees unlikely to survive demolition/ site clearance
V	Willows/ poplars
W	Willows/ thorn	