

According to the proposed plans, there will be 3 storey developments behind my bungalow. I have a south facing garden and the taller buildings will obstruct the light into my garden throughout the day. My main living quarters face onto the new houses and the higher developments will have a line of sight which will invade my privacy, despite the proposed fencing. However despite this, I do welcome the development of a new road, to relieve the currently congested traffic in the area.