[redacted]

ropolitan
ouncil

2009

Room

excellence

Awarded for excellence

8-5-09

Design and Access Statement

Erection of agricultural building for use as crop store at Gunthwaite Hall, Gunthwaite lane, Cawthorne, Barnsley, South Yorkshire.

Application no - 2009/0489/invalid

Design

Erection of agricultral building for use as crop store (straw). the building proposed is 60ft x 30ft x 16ft to the eves in 3 bay of 20ft.
it is a steel portal design to agrcultral spec useing steel R.S.J. 130mm x 180mm legsize. bolted together at the eves and the ridges and useing timber purlins 100mm x 180 mm.
The roof is of steel box profile sheets in green with ridges and flashings to match.
The south side cladding is of the same colour and the same material as the roof and the water goods are in plastic.
Both gable ends are open and north side of the proposed,

Access

Access to proposed building from east of Gunthwaite Lane over of right of way through farm yard and also bridleway and farm track.
Veiceles accessing proposed building will be agricultral veiceles, eg tractors, forklifts, combine harvesters and farm eqripment.